Notification Dated, 26h April 1956.

No. MI. C. 51—56-57. It is hereby notified for the information of the public that the Town Municipal Council, Gudibanda, have at their meeting held on 23rd day of March 1956, resolved that the following Model Bye-laws and Rules framed by Government from time to time may be adopted by this Municipality with necessary alterations may be applicable to this Municipality.

Any inhabitants of the Municipality or any other person who objects to the proposed Bye-laws and Rules, may within one month from the date of publication of the notification in the Mysore Gazette send his objections in writing to the Municipal Council stating reasons thereof. Objections received after the prescribed time will not be considered.

Rules framed under Section 45 (1) (a) read with Section 27 of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act for regulating the conduct of business and delegation of any of the powers or duties and the appointment and constitution of committees of Gudibanda Town Municipal Council.

1. Business to be conducted if a quorum be present at the hour fixed for the Meeting.—At the hour fixed for a meeting of the council if a quorum be present, the business of the meeting may at once commence and, if neither the President nor the Vice-President be present, the Councillors present may proceed to choose a Chairman under sub-section (5) of Section (27). If the President or the Vice-President arrives after a presiding councillor has been chosen by the Councillors the presiding Councillor shall leave the chair and the President or Vice-President shall preside.

2. Absence of Quorum in a Meeting.—If during a meeting the presiding authority notices that a quorum is not present, or any Counillor calls the attention of the presiding authority to the fact that a quorum is not present the presiding authority shall immediately suspend the business of the meeting and shall count the number of Councillors present, and if that number is insufficient to form a quorum, the presiding authority shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (7) of Section 27.

3. Confirmation of Minutes of previous Meeting.—At the commencement of the proceedings of each ordinary general meeting, the minutes of the previous general meeting shall be read. If any Councillor present objects to the minutes as having been incorrectly or incompletely recorded, the presiding authority shall, after taking the sense of the meeting make such amendments as he thinks proper and the amended minutes shall then be confirmed and signed by the presiding authority.

4. (a) Order to be observed.—A Councillor wishing to speak must rise in his place. The Councillor who first rises to speak has the right to be heard: In cases of doubt the presiding authority shall decide who is entitled to speak. No interruption to the speech of a Conncillor shall be permitted, except that the presiding authority may call the Councillor to order, and any other Councillor may rise and request the presiding authority to call the speaker to order, or request the presiding authority to notice that a quorum is not present.

(b) Procedure for putting questions.—All questions from the Councillor to another relating to the business of the meeting shall be put through the presiding authority.

5. (a) Order.—The presiding authority shall preserve order and all points of order shall be summarily decided by him, no discussion thereon being allowed, unless he shall think fit to take the opinion of the Councillors present. The presiding authority may adjourn any meeting that refuses to obey his ruling on a point of order.

(b) Councillor called to order to resume his seat.—A Councillor called to order by the presiding authority shall resume his seat till the decision of the point of order raised, provided that the presiding authority may allow the member to speak on the point of order raised. If any Councillor desires to dispute the decision of the presiding authority, he may bring forward a proposition at the following meeting.

6. Grouping of items of business.—If more than one meeting be held the same day, it shall be competent to the presiding authority with the consent of the majority of the Councillors present, to submit for consideration as one of business relating to the same subject although some of such items shall appear on the agenda papers of another and distinct meeting to be held on the same day.

7. A Proposition may be divided.—The presiding authority shall have powers to divide into two or more distinct propositions, any proposition or amendment which in his opinion is so complicated as to be likely to lead to confusion or inconvenience by being debated on as one proposition:

A propoistion when divided need not be moved and seconded more than once.—But when by virtue of this rule a proposition or amendment is divided, it shall not be necessary, unless the presiding authority decides to the ontrary, for the second and following portions of such proposition or amendment to be again separately moved, and seconded. But the propositions so divided shall be put to the vote by the presiding authority one after the other.

8. Mode of addressing the Meeting.—Each Councillor rising to speak shall direct his speech to the question before the meeting or an amendment which he is himsel about to propose or to a point of order always addressing the presiding authority from his place. A Councillot having spoken to a proposition oramendment is not ar liberty to peak again to suchtproposition or amendment:

Provided that the mover of a proposition or amendment shall have a right of reply, after the presiding authority has ascertained that no other Councillor entitled to speak desires to speak:

Provided further that any Councillor may second a proposition or amendment by saying "I second the proposition or amendment" and may reserve his right to speak later:

Provided also that a Councillor who wishes to explain any misconception of expressions used by him may do so with the permission of the presiding authority.

9. Routine resolutions many be put to Meeting without being moved or seconded.—Routine esolutions such as recording periodical statements or confirming the proceedings of a Committee, may be put to the meeting by presiding authority without their having been moved or seconded. Propositions regarding the choice of presiding Councillor, adjournments and the like must be seconded, but need not be in writing.

Except as provided above every proposition and every amendment must be in writing and must be seconded.

Resolutions of committees to be moved and seconded by members.—When a resolution of a committee is submitted to the General Meeting for adoption, its adoption should ordinarily be moved and seconded by members of the committee.

10. Amendments.—After the proposition has been moved and seconded, any Councillor may propose an amend ment thereto:

Provided that no Councillor shall be at liberty to propose more than one amendment to any proposition except when such proposition is for the passing of a budget or of a set of general rules, or is otherwise of such a nature as to require the making of many amendments to different parts of it.

11. Presiding authority to read propositiosn to the Meeting.—The proposer of any amendment shall state it or hand it in writing to the presiding authority at any time before he resumes his seat. When the mover of a proposition or amendment has resumed his seat, the presiding authority shall read the proposition or amendment to the meeting and ask if any Councillor seconds the proposition or amendment and until the same is seconded, the presiding authority shall not permit any discussion on the question. If no Councillor seconds the proposition or the amendment, the presiding authority shall declare that the proposition or amendent is lost.

12. Speeches should not be read.—A Councillor shall not read his speech, but may refresh his memory from notes and may, with the consent of the presiding authority read passages from books or documents cited on behalf of his argument.

13. Any Councillor may move proposition of which notice has been given if original mover is absent or unwilling.—If a Councillor has given due notice to a proposition, and if that Councillor be not present at the meeting or shall unwilling to move the proposition of which he has given notice, any Councillor present at the meeting with the consent of the presiding authority, move the proposition of which notice has been given.

14. Amendments to omit words etc., from original proposition to be clear and relevant and not mere negative of previous propositions.—An amendment shall usually be in the form of a proposal to omit words from the original proposition, to insert words therein or to add words thereto.

Every amendment must be relevant to the proposition it is proposed to amend and must be framed so as to form therewith an intelligible and consistent sentence. An amendment which is the direct negative of the proposition shall not be allowed.

15. Amendments may be send to the President beforehand in writing.—A Councillor who intends to propose an amendment to a proposition is at liberty to send or deliver at any time before hand to the President or the presiding authority, his proposed amendment in writing.

16. Each amendment to be decided before the next is entered upon.—Each amendment must be decided before the next amendment is entered upon, but after any amendment has been proposed and seconded any Councillor may move that the amendment be amended by the omission, insertion or addition of certain words, and the presiding authority shall thereupon ask if any other Councillor seconds the proposals and if seconded, the proposal to amend the amendment shall then become the question before the meeting.

17. No amendment to words already resolved be made.—No amendment may be made towards which it has already been resolved shall stand part of, or to be added to the orginal proposition or amendment except by addition or other words.

18. Amendment once negatived not to be proposed.—No amendment may be proposed which is the same in substance as a proposition or amendment which has been negatived during the meeting.

19. Proposition or amendment not to be withdrawn.—A proposition or amendment which has been moved and seconded cannot be withdrawn without the permission of the meeting.

20. Presiding authority to move propositions without quitting Chair.—The presiding authority may move and second propositions or amendments, speak and vote without vacating the Chair.

21. Voting.—When a question is put to vote, the presiding authority shall call for a show of hands, and the presiding authority or a Councillor at his request shall count the hands shown for and against and declare the results. If any Councillor challanges the correctness of the members thus declared, the heads shall be counted a second time; provided that if any two Councillors request a poll, the presiding authority shall call the roll of the Councillors and record on the minutes of the meeting the names of the Councillors voting for and against.

The presiding authority, unless he refrains from voting should give his casting vote, the proposition shall be held to be neither passed nor rejected and may be brought forward at a subsequent meeting.

22. No member obliged to vote.—A Councillor who is present at a meeting may refrain from voting. If the question before the meeting be the confirmation of a report or proceedings of a committee, the member of that committee may vote. If the conduct of a Councillor be in question, that Councillor may vote.

23. Result of equality of votes.—When there is an equality of votes and the presiding authority refrains from giving his casting vote, the proposition shall be held to be neither passed nor rejected and may be brought forward at any subsequent meeting.

24. Budget Discussion.—When a budget or re-appropriation statement is laid down before a general meeting, the procedure shall be as follows:—

(i) The presiding authority shall read each item of the abstract of receipts and expenditure and shall without any mover or seconder put to the meeting the question "That this item stand part of the budget or re-appropriation statement".

(ii) If any Councilor propose to reduce or increase such proposal to be seconded, such proposal shall be treated as an amendment and shall become the question before the meeting.

25. Proposals to adjourn a meeting or for closure or to postponing, etc.,—A proposal to adjourn a meeting or for closure or to postpone the consideration of a question shall take precedence over any other proposition before the meeting.

Notification dated 26th April 1956.

No. ML.C. 54—56-57. It is hereby notified for the information of the public, that the Town Municipal Council, Gudibanda have at their meeting, held on 23rd day of March 1956, resolved that the following Model Bye-laws and Rules framed by Government from time to time, may be adopted by this Municipality with necessary alterations applicable to this Municipality.

Any inhabitants of the Municipality or any other person objecting to the proposed bye-laws and rules may within one month from the date of publication of the notification in the Official Mysore Gazette send his objections in writing to the Municipal Council stating reasons thereof. Objections received after the prescribed time will not be considered.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 46 (1) (h) of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act, 1951, (Mysore Act XXII of 1951), Town Municipal Council, Gudibanda Town have framed the following Model Rules prescribing the fees to be charged for the temporary occupation of or the erection of the temporary structures on public streets or for projection over public streets etc., in accordance with the Government Notification No. L 10072-M.L. 152-52-6, Bangalore, dated 24th September 1956.

I. DEPOSIT OF GOODS OR MATERIALS TEMPORARILY ON LAND IN THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL, GUDIBANDA

1 The fees chargeable for the use or occupation of any street drain, aqueduct or other land vested in the Municipal Council for the deposit of goods or materials shall be calculated at the rate of four annas per month per square foot of the area occupied and shall be payable in advance.

2 The following is the scale of fees for the unauthorised occupation of different kinds :—

(a) For awnings.—Four annas per square foot per month.

(b) For temporary archways across roads: Rupee one only per day for each arch on each road.

(c) The fees for obstructions shall be charged as the scales mentioned above and such charges shall be recoverable in the manner prescribed in the Act, for the recovery of municipal claims.

(d) Occupation of public streets for vending fruits, etc.

3 In such streets or public roads as may be specified and in such parts of the same as may be set apart by the Municipal Council, a fee of two annas per day or per month Rs. 4-0-0 shall be levied for the temporary occupation of a public street for the sale of articles, e.g., vegetables, fruits, silk and cotton goods or ware, betel leaf, etc., provided that the President may allow the temporary occupation of the public street in such manner as not to inconvenience the public and may order the levy of a fee not exceeding Re. 0-8-0 (eight annas), per square yard per month.

4 Any person who takes out a license for a certain area, and subsequently occupies a greater area, without taking out a license for the excess so occupied shall be liable to pay for such excess area an amount calculated at the rate of annas four per month per superficial foot of the area so occupied. This amount shall be recoverable according to the procedure laid down in Section 92 of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act, 1951.

II. REGARDING THE ERECTION OF PENDALS OR OTHER PUBLIC STRUCTURES ON PUBLIC STREETS.

5 No pendals or other temporary structures for marriage shall be erected in any street, land or public thoroughfare without the written permission from the President. On receipt of an application for permission to put up such structures, specifying the situation, size and other particulars, a license will be issued by the President, if he sees no objection thereto, on such conditions as he may think necessary to provide to ensure public convenience and safety and on payment of the following fees.—

	Rs.	a.	p
1. For a pendal 6 ft. broad and 12 ft. long or not exceeding 72 sq. ft.	0	8	0
2. For a pendal exceeding 72 sq. ft. and not exceeding 150 sq. ft.	1	0	0
3. For every additional 150 sq. ft. or portion	0	8	0

(a) No pendal shall ordinarily be allowed to stand for more than fifteen days.

(b) if on the expiration of the time allowed in the license or the period granted in extension thereto on special application, the person who puts the structrues does not remove it, the President may issue a notice to the defaulter for its removal within such time as may be fixed by him in each case and at the end of which time, he may have it removed and the cost of such removal shall be recoverable from the dafaulter as a municipal demand.

(c) Provided that in the case of pendals intended, for purpose of charity or public utility, permission may be granted free of charge but the period of its existence shall not exceed fifteen days:

(d) Provided no pits or holes should be made in the tarred portion of the road and in other places, the holes made should be filled up by the party himself.

III. REGARDING PROJECIONS OVER PUBLIC STREETS.

6 The fees for weather-boards, etc., for every half-year payable in advance shall be as follows :

Rupees four for every weather-board, etc., not exceeding 2½ ft. in width and 10 ft. in length or fraction thereof

Rupees six for every weather-board, etc., not exceeding 3 ft. in width and 10 ft. in length or fraction thereof
